DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to applicant's amendment filed on November 16, 2006. The rejections cited are as stated below:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 58-70 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In particular, claim 58 recites in the preamble "a credit card", the body of the claim does not contain any limitations indicating the structure of the card. A system or an apparatus claim should always claim the structure or the hardware that performs the function. "A claim of this type is precluded by the express language of 35 USC 101 which is drafted so as to set forth the statutory classes of invention in the alternative only", Ex parte Lyell (17 USPQ2d 1548). For further examination purposes, the claimed limitations will be interpreted in light of the 112 2nd rejection. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

4. 35 U.S.C. § 101 reads as follows:

"Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title".

5. Claims 58-70 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

35 USC 101 requires that in order to be patentable the invention must be directed to a single class (e.g., apparatus, method, ..) and "new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof" (emphasis added). Applicant's claims mentioned above do not fall under a specific statutory class. "A claim of this type is precluded by the express language of 35 USC 101 which is drafted so as to set forth the statutory classes of invention in the alternative only", Ex parte Lyell (17 USPQ2d 1548).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 58-70 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Gould et al. US Pat. Pub. No. 2001/0001856 A1 (hereinafter "Gould").

Claims 58-70, Gould discloses a pre-paid cash equivalent card issued to an unidentified holder, having no means to determine the holders' identity (abstract), the card comprising a pre-designated monetary value, wherein said monetary value can be determined without disclosing any personal information of the unidentified holder (abstract)

Gould discloses that the card is sold or exchanged for a fee, the pre-designated monetary value is sold or exchanged for a fee, used online or offline and exchanged to obtain goods or services, issued by a credit card company, financial institution, or bank, attached to a magnetic bar code that can become useable or exchangeable upon revealing or uncovering the undisclosed bar code, used or exhausted in the same manner as credit limits or credit values or monetary limits or monetary values attached to cards issued to non-anonymous holders are used or exhausted, and wherein the pre-designated monetary value is exhausted all at once or through multiple uses (figs 1-5, and [Para 27-57].
